

Project Architect

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Works in constant communication with design team leaders to produce plans, sections, and 3D models of multifamily and mixed-use projects
- Creates tabulations that track the net rentable square footage and unit count of multifamily projects as required by Finance, Operations, and Construction
- Assists in the development of site studies and due diligence activities of potential Streetlights Residential development opportunities
- Prepares materials for investment committee presentations and internal monthly or quarterly meetings
- At project milestones, organizes materials for the appropriate SLR team members for input, quality control and approvals

REQUIREMENTS

- Education: College degree within the Architecture industry
- Experience: 2-4+ years within the multifamily, mixed-use or hospitality industry with experience as the member of a design team
- Possess strong communication and organizational skills. A team player who possesses a positive attitude, strong work ethic, and a high level of professionalism
- Proficient in AutoCAD, Microsoft Excel and Trimble SketchUp. InDesign and Lumion preferred but not required
- Possess strong design presentation skills

CONTACT

Qualified candidates should email their resume to:

D'Ann Davis | Human Resources Manager | ddavis@streetlightsres.com